Proceeds from the Valentine Dinner Dance benefit The Wesley Bell Ringer and their 2019 summer concert tour. The WBR are one of the premier youth handbell choirs in the United States. They are sponsored by CUMC and are made up of ringers from 9th grade through freshman year in college. The choir was founded in 1963, participates each month in worship service at CUMC, plays concerts through northern Utah in December for the holiday season, and go on a 2 week national tour each summer, playing concerts all over the United States.
