VOA's Youth Resource Center (888 So. 400 W., Salt Lake City, UT; open daily 8:30 am - 7:30 pm for homeless & at-risk youth 15-22 years of age. Meals are served at 8:30 am, 1:00 pm, and 6:00 pm.

This Center turns into an over-night shelter 7:30 pm to 8:30 am. There are 30 beds available each night. Youth in a Self-Reliance Plan (engagement based goal-setting program) are guaranteed a bed. The Center has a partnership shelter program with The Road Home Shelter and when the Center is full, youth have the opportunity to stay at The Road Home in a specialized youth-only dormitory.

Youth who are experiencing homelessness or at risk for being homeless can drop by the YRC daily 8:30 am – 7:30 pm to receive assistance with food, a shower, clothing, counseling, legal aid, and help with securing an apartment, a job, & a valid ID. A specialized staff is available to help with these services. More information can be found by calling the YRC at 801-364-0744 or on our website www.voaut.org
